TRADITION, PRIDE, AND DEDICATION

In 1968, a hard-working man followed his American dream with a single motivation: the belief in himself. That man was Raymond Leo Schreiber, our original Purveyor. Inspired to make food products he could be proud of, Raymond would craft the finest products and personally deliver them to his customers. When word spread about his outstanding food quality, he knew a culinary spark was made, and R.L. Schreiber Inc. was born.

 R.L. SCHREIBER is a special family-owned company driven by its values of superb food quality & safety, service excellence, and integrity. With expanding business and product lines over several decades, R.L. Schreiber realized a big dream by moving into its own 125,000 square foot manufacturing and distribution facility in 2011 to produce over 1,000 items such as soup bases, food bases, spices, seasonings, herbs, dry mixes, and custom blends. Located in Lebanon, Kentucky, our state-of-the art facility has the highest level of food safety, food quality standards, and innovative product opportunities with in-house labs and expert research & development teams. As an SQF Level 2 Certified FDA/USDA-inspected facility, it meets the highest standards of global food safety. With corporate headquarters in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, we also have a unique mobile Purveyor network to personally deliver each and every order door-to-door to our customers, nationwide. This personal service excellence made us different from the beginning by Raymond, our original Purveyor, and still does today. R.L. Schreiber couldn't be more proud of our growth from a neighborhood success in 1968 to a culinary staple in professional kitchens today. Ray's five children, many grandchildren, our Purveyor network, and our employees are as dedicated to Ray's legacy of delivering superior quality and customer service as he was. By crafting premium products with maximum quality, freshness, and flavor, personally delivering them, and sharing deep culinary knowledge with our customers, we are providing product and service excellence Raymond would be proud of. R.L. Schreiber looks forward to celebrating our 50th Anniversary in 2018, and to embracing the next 50 years as the premier PURVEYORS OF FINE FLAVORS.
